BRIEFLETS.

—Council night.

—As soon as it begins to get cold, it begins to get hot for the oysters.

—The attorneys and others interested in the Mack case went to Jefferson today.

—The Monday morning mail is generally pretty heavy, but this morning was unusually so.

—Regular meeting of No. 55, F. & A. M., to-night, at which there will be work in the master's degree.

—Jerry Sullivan, a Beloit youth, saw too much of Janesville, and will now taper off his drink, by staying in jail for eight days.

—The second of the series of dancing parties by the patriarchal order of Odd Fellows will be given at Apollo Hall, on Thursday evening of this week.

—The Single Center Spring Company's buggy, walked off with the first premium at the Northern Ohio fair, held at Cleveland, George Osgood, who was with

T. T. Croft there, has gone on to Detroit, to show the buggy at the fair there.

—Cain & Spahn, saloonists, pleaded guilty before Justice Nolan, for keeping open house after 11 o'clock at night, paid $25 and costs, and walked on. It begins to look as the Marshal meant it when he gave notice that the law must be obeyed.

—Sydney, the business agent of Tony Dealer, is to be here to-morrow to bill the bounds. The show is doing an immense business. At Milwaukee the receipts for two nights and a matinee were $2,103 and the week at Minneapolis run up to $9,000.

—Mrs. S. A. Fish, of Racine, died this afternoon, at one o'clock, at her son-in-law's, Daniel Strunk. The funeral services will be held at the residence of Daniel Strunk, on the Patton road, to-morrow at 12 m. Her remains will be taken to Racine for burial.

—We are in receipt of the initial number of the Republican Journal, the new paper just sent forth by Swift & Baker, at Kenosha. It is sprightly, good looking, and is evidently deserving of the hearty support which such a paper is sure to get. We wish long life and best prospe-city for the new paper to our exchange table.

—We notice that E. A. Bennett has a good showing of monumental art at his marble shop. Some of these monuments are really beautiful, and show rare good workmanship. Those wanting any more elaborate or expensive work, or desiring any thing different from that already prepared, can have it of him, for he can do anything in his line and do it well. The specimens which he has already prepared are really worth one's time to stop and look at.

—The temperance meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association at Causton's hall yesterday afternoon was well attended, and the exercises were interesting. Mr. Dearborn presided, and brief addresses were made by Warren

Collins, Prof. Silsbere, Robert Acheson, and Darius Allen. The music was excellent, Miss Nellie Kent gave a temperance song, accompanied by her father on the cornet. Mr. Kent, and Mr. Helms with his saxophone, played a duet which was also pleasing.

—Those intending to go to Toronto at the time of the great gathering of Odd Fellows there, September 19th to 25th, will be glad to learn that the Michigan Central railroad company has placed on sale special tickets good for the round trip from Chicago, at only $10. This is cheaper than staying at home, or walking.

They give the choice of three roads from Detroit, and the tickets are good for any trains from the 15th of September to the 5th of October. The tickets will be sold at the Chicago office September 15, 16 and 17. The rate is two dollars less than by any other route, and as all know, the Michigan Central affords all possible accommodations and comforts.

Connecticut, a prominent lawyer and

"A GOOD LONG BABY"

Saturday evening "the original" Georgia minstrels appeared at the Opera house. The show was way below criticism. It reminds one of the young man who was called on to look at the baby of a friend. The babe was pimply-faced, big-eyed, bald-headed, big-eared, and drooled disgustingly, but the young man was expected to praise that baby, of course. He looked all around for some point of beauty to enthuse over, and finally noticing the long dress, in which babies were wont to be tortured, and in his innocence supposing that the feet of the babe reached nearly to the hem of the skirt, smiled triumphantly and exclaimed: "Well, it's a good long baby, anyway." The only good word of charity that could be said for this show is that "it was a good long show, anyway." Every act was drawn out until it was too thin to hang together, and there seemed to be no prospect of the show ever coming to an end, until the audience began scattering for home, which hurried up the final drop of the curtain. It was more tedious than to have an evening's readings from some tax-sale list. There was no fun nor music. There was noise and tumbling, and face-making, but all too silly for anything outside of the monkey cage at a menagerie, and not half as funny. All the singers and musicians were independent, that is each one sang or played on his own key, and in his own way, and there was a terrible slaughter of music. Altogether the best that can be said of it was that "it was a good long baby." The troupe left for Watertown yesterday morning. They expected to wait here until to-day, but the fear of getting "the guy" from the boys who paid their quarters to hear the show, was too much for them and they hurried off on a freight train.
